and Police Chiefs
Post Office Box 826
Olympia, Washington 98507

Dear Chief Shanahan:

The close working relationship that has evolved between staff persons of your Association and the national Uniform Crime Reporting (UCR) Program, administered by the FBI, is admirable. I want to take this opportunity to compliment you and other law enforcement executives in the State of Washington for developing and providing continued support to the UCR Program in your state.

First efforts in a state UCR Program frequently appear unproductive. I hope you and your fellow Chiefs and Sheriffs will continue the support that you have given thus far. Uncovering the various subtleties connected with the crime problem will, eventually, emanate from an ongoing state UCR endeavor.

Again, you are to be congratulated on the fine work thus far accomplished. Should your Association require our assistance, I wish you to know that we stand ready to support you in assuring the continued success of UCR in the State of Washington.

Sincerely yours,

William H. Webster

INTRODUCTION

Crime in Washington State 1980 is the first annual publication compiled by the Washington Uniform Crime Reporting program (WUCR). WUCR and this report was partially funded by the Bureau of Justice Statistics, Law Enforcement Assistance Administration of the United States Department of Justice authorized under the Crime Control Act of 1973, through grants DF-79-65-6190 and DF-80-65-6038. While the grant has been assigned to the Washington State Patrol, administration of WUCR is the responsibility of the Washington Association of Sheriffs and Police Chiefs (WASPC) as sub-grantees. WUCR is unique in that it is the only state UCR program that is sponsored, administered, and supported by an organization of contributing agency administrators, rather than a bureau or department of state government.

WASHINGTON UNIFORM CRIME REPORTING PROGRAM

Data for CRIME IN WASHINGTON STATE 1980 are compiled from monthly UCR documents, submitted by law enforcement agencies throughout the State of Washington. UCR is a National program for the collection of crime and arrest trend information from sheriffs' offices and police departments that was developed by the International Association of Chiefs of Police (IACP) in 1929. While IACP originated the program and continues to exercise policy control through its Committee on Uniform Crime Records, the Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) has been responsible for the administration of the program, the collection of data, and the publication of reports since 1930. WUCR was activated in October, 1979 and began the collection of monthly reports from contributing agencies in January, 1980. At the present time the program is operated manually. However, a computer program designed to provide automated data input processing and magnetic tape output is scheduled to become operational by the end of 1981.

WUCR PROGRAM OBJECTIVES

The objectives of the WUCR program are to implement and administer a uniform system of collecting crime and arrest statistical data from law enforcement agencies in the State of Washington. WUCR data, when compiled and evaluated, can provide the following information to law enforcement departments, other member of the Criminal Justice System, local, county, state and national agencies:

1. the number of crimes reported
2. the geographical distribution of reported offenses
3. the identification of the reported crimes that increased or decreased.
4. the identification of difference in volume, increases and decreases between reported offenses.
5. the number and clearance rate for reported offenses.

CRIME FACTORS

Several factors affect the type and amount of crime that is reported to WUCR. A roster of these factors which should be considered when making comparisons of agency data appear in "Crime in the United States, Uniform Crime Reports, 1979", and are listed for the convenience of WUCR data users:

Density and size of community population, and of its surrounding area.

Variations in composition of the population, particularly age structure.

Stability of population with respect to transient factors.

Economic conditions, including job availability.

Cultural conditions, such as educational, recreational, and religious characteristics.

Climate

Effective strength of law enforcement agencies.
Administrative and investigative emphases of law enforcement.
Policies of other components of the criminal justice system (i.e., prosecutorial, judicial, correctional, and probational).
Attitudes of citizenry toward crime.
Crime reporting practices of citizenry.

CRIME INDEX AND CRIME RATE
TABLES 1 & 2

The number of murder and non-negligent manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny-theft, and motor vehicle theft offenses reported comprise the FBI Crime Index. The number of offenses reported in relationship to the population is called the Crime Rate. (See "Crime Rate" in the Glossary section for a definition and method of computing this type of information.) In this report data from those agencies which reported for all months in both 1979 and 1980 are used to compile the tables, graphs, and charts appearing in the narrative portion of this report. However, all departments that reported in 1979 and 1980 are shown in the Part I Crimes and Clearance tables, located in the Appendix section.

ASSAULT, SIMPLE: those assaults which do not involve the use of a dangerous weapon or in which there were no serious or severe injuries to the victims.

ARREST RATE: the number of arrests per 100,000 population (see Crime Rate for method of computation).

BURGLARY: the unlawful entry of a structure to commit a felony or a theft.

CLEARANCE: the solving of an offense by the arrest, charging and turning over for prosecution a person or persons.

CLEARANCE RATE: percentage of the total of crimes cleared, compared to the number reported.

Example:[a]

a. Number of clearances in robbery, 38

b. Number of total robberies, 72

Divide: 38 by 72 = 528

Multiply: 528 by 100 = 52.8

CRIME: an act committed or omitted in violation of a law forbidding or commanding it.

[a]Uniform Crime Reporting Handbook, page 90.

CRIME RATE: the number of crimes per 100,000 population. To compute rates, divide the jurisdictions population by 100,000 and divide this number into the number of offenses.

Example:[a]

a. Population of jurisdiction 75,000

b. Number of reported burglaries for the jurisdiction for the time period under consideration is 215

Divide 75,000 by 100,000 = .75

Divide 215 by .75 = 286.7

The burglary rate is 286.7 per 100,000 population.

FBI CRIME INDEX: seven offenses which were selected because of their seriousness, frequency of occurrence, and likelihood of being reported to the police. The offenses are murder and non-negligent manslaughter, forcible rape, robbery, aggravated assault, burglary, larceny-theft, and motor vehicle theft.
